About:

The Coalition for the International Criminal Court is the world's largest civil society partnership advancing the global fight against impunity for serious international crimes. Its membership and work are facilitated by its Secretariat, with staff in New York, The Hague, and Brussels. You can learn more about us at www.coalitionfortheicc.org or on our social media (Twitter, Facebook, and LinkedIn).

The Secretariat of the Coalition for the International Criminal Court is seeking two dynamic and passionate individuals to join its team as Advocacy interns in New York and in The Hague. The Interns will provide support to the Secretariat's advocacy work and engagement with Coalition members, language and administrative tasks. This includes supporting the facilitation of civil access to and participation in important annual gatherings such as the annual Assembly of States Parties session. The Coalition is committed to ensuring the successful candidate has a learning experience and gains exposure to the work of a small, dynamic, multinational team in a non-governmental organization and the broader international justice community in New York.

Tasks and activities:

- Provide support—both research and administrative—to Coalition advocacy efforts with ICC States Parties and ICC officials;
- Attend and report on meetings and events on thematic issues and country situations that relate to international justice, including meetings of the ICC Assembly of States Parties (ASP), United Nations, or regional organizations;
- Assist with the monitoring of ICC proceedings and developments;
- Assist Coalition staff with research, drafting of documents or articles, and monitoring of political and international justice developments;
- Support the organisation of virtual and in-person events, including drafting invitations, logistics, note-taking, and reporting;

COALITION FOR THE INTERNATIONAL CRIMINAL COURT

- Support the Secretariat with multilingual communications and publications, including translations to and from English, French or Spanish; and
- Undertake special projects and other ad hoc assignments that may arise.

Qualifications requested:

- Affinity with the values and mandate of the Coalition for the ICC. Previous experience in the international justice field, or with NGOs is an asset;
- Enrolled in or Advanced undergraduate or graduate student in law, international relations, with a specialization in international criminal law, human rights or a related field;
- Proficiency in English, as well as French or Spanish; additional languages are a plus;
- Strong written and oral communication, research, and writing skills; and
- Ability to work independently in a multi-cultural environment and within the constraints of tight deadlines.

What we offer:

- Experience working in a civil society network operating in the international justice field;
- Opportunity to learn about the work of the ICC and civil society coalitions.
- Working with deeply inspiring human rights defenders from around the world;
- A supportive work environment where collaboration and support are central; and
- Flexible work arrangements that promote well-being.

How to apply:

Please send the following by 12 August at 12:00 EDT/18:00 CET:

- A curriculum-vitae;
- A one-page cover letter detailing your motivation; and
- Names and contact details of two references.
